

Love is action: Love is deliberately upending my preferences and priorities so that I may consistently, energetically, and sacrificially act for the good of my brothers and sisters in Christ, despite their flaws, my flaws, all obstacles, and how I feel.

Restated again: Christian love is not a checklist of TODOs or a slight tweak to our priorities, it is a reborn way of looking at other people, and seeing them—with joy—as responsibilities Jesus has given to you.

1. Love refuses to: vv 5b-6a

- a. Seek its own interests. (review)
- b. Take offense easily.
- c. Keep track of flaws and offenses.
- d. Enjoy sin or harm to others.

2. Love relishes what is true. v 6b

3. Love without limits: v 7

- a. Love bears any burden.
- b. Love is eager to believe the best.
- c. Love never exhausts hope.
- d. Love never gives up.